

Proclamation

NORTHERN INTERIOR COMMUNITIES ASSOCIATION WEEK

Whereas: the Northern Interior Communities Association (NICA) is a provincially incorporated, non-profit society dedicated to making supports available to the over 1050 non-profit organizations, charities and community associations in British Columbia's Northern Interior; and

Whereas: NICA provides mentorship, training, and resources to help organizations navigate the Provincial charitable gaming grant process, write grant applications for other funding streams, and improve governance and finance operation; and

Whereas: NICA delivers its programs and services free of charge in following with their principal to provide guidance and direction to any non-profit, charity or community association that requires support; and

Whereas: NICA creates a forum for collaboration and inclusion which helps community groups be successful in their efforts to make a difference; and

Whereas: NICA has been delivering valuable services to the Northern Interior from its regional headquarters in Prince George, BC since 1992:

Now therefore, as Mayor of the City of Prince George,
I proclaim that April 5 - 11, 2021 be observed as:
"Northern Interior Communities Association Week"
in the City of Prince George.

Mayor Lyn Hall
City of Prince George